BMT Tax Depreciation

QUANTITY SURVEYORS

Depreciate and save

Property depreciation is the wear and tear of buildings and assets over time. The Australian Taxation Office allows the owners of income-producing properties to claim this depreciation as a tax deduction.

Regardless of when you purchased your property, whether it's new or old, it's likely there are substantial depreciation deductions available. For this reason, it's worth discussing your individual situation with our team.

Maximise your depreciation deductions with a BMT Tax Depreciation Schedule.

BMT has been trusted by investors Australia-wide for over 20 years. We have completed hundreds of thousands of tax depreciation schedules for all property types, ranging from residential houses and apartments to commercial properties.
